Wavy Edged Hat Pattern

This is a simple pattern I came up with that looks adorable on the kids. The hats in the pictures are done with Bare Sheep Yarn Company's hand dyed washable merino wool worsted weight. The grosgrain ribbon is run through the eyelets and tied in a bow in the back—it can also be used as a sort of drawstring to better fit the hat to the head. The hat is great for keep the sun out of little eyes and keeping little heads warm. The pattern can be done with cotton for the warmer months and wool for the cooler months.

You will need:

- * size 7 in DPN's and circular needles—you will start on DPN's and then have to switch to a circular as your stitches increase and you find them becoming unmanageable on DPN's
- * 1 stitch marker
- * 1 row counter
- * optional grosgrain ribbon approx. 6" longer than the circumference of the hat size to be made
- * 4 oz. worsted weight yarn
- * crochet hook size G

Gauge: 6 stitches per 1" 7 rows per 1"

Stitches:

I–increase, knit 1 in front and in back of same stitch before slipping off left hand needle
